THE LAURELS
BRAILSFORD

A connected, countryside community

The Laurels sits on the edge of the popular village, Brailsford. With its active community hall, primary school, pub and sports clubs, the village is a vibrant hub for local people of all ages. Whether it's joining a local Scouts group, participating in one of the many craft clubs, becoming a member of the golf club or supporting the vibrant community events you'll feel a true sense of belonging from the moment you arrive.

With easy access to the A52, whether you're working in Ashbourne, Derby, or further afield, you can enjoy the calm of semi-rural life while staying well-connected to everything you need. Families choose The Laurels not only for the relaxed, out-of-town lifestyle it offers but also because being located opposite the village primary school means that school run becomes more convenient.

At a glance...

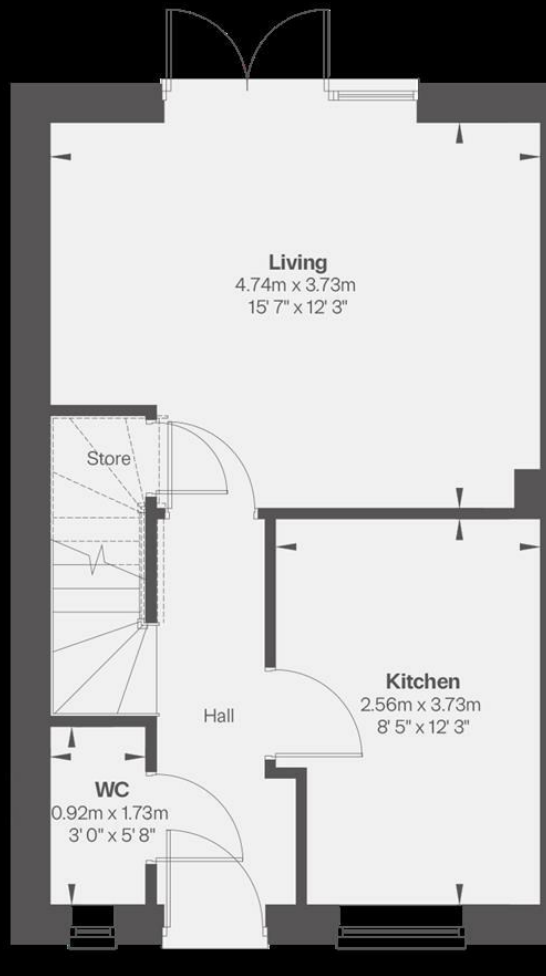

- 28 thoughtfully designed homes
- 2, 3 and 4-bedroom homes
