A connected, countryside community

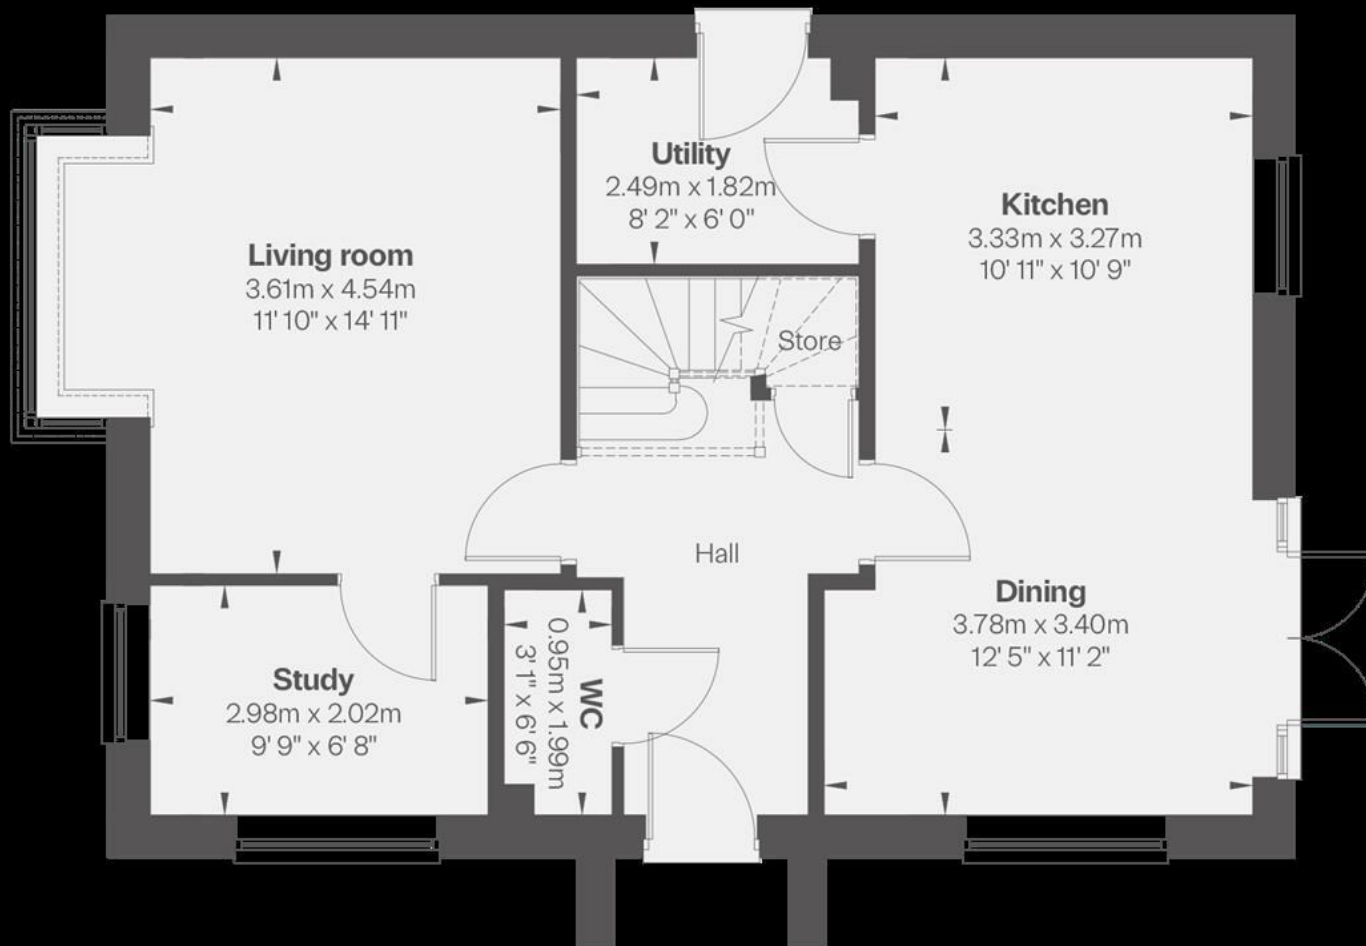

The Laurels sits on the edge of the popular village, Brailsford. With an active community hall, primary school, pub and sports clubs, the development is a vibrant hub for local people of all ages. Whether it's joining a local Scouts group, participating in one of the many craft clubs, becoming a member of the golf club or supporting the vibrant community events, you'll feel a true sense of belonging from the moment you arrive.

With easy access to the A52, whether you're working in Ashbourne, Derby, or further afield, you can enjoy the calm of semi-rural life while staying well-connected to everything you need. Families choose The Laurels not only for the relaxed, out-of-town lifestyle it offers but also because being located opposite the village primary school means the school run becomes more convenient.

Welcome to The Laurels

With far-reaching rural views, The Laurels, Brailsford is in proximity to stunning walking trails, and a welcoming village community, this new neighbourhood of 28 thoughtfully-designed two, three and four-bedroom homes offers more than just a home - it's a lifestyle. Here, you can find the calm of rural living while still having easy access to local shops, schools, and major transport routes.
