

This charming and well-presented home offers spacious, light-filled accommodation with gas central heating and double glazing throughout.

The ground floor begins with a welcoming porch featuring tiled flooring, a timber frosted glazed front door, and a beautiful stained glass window, which leads into a spacious hallway with a staircase to the first floor and access to the main rooms. The lounge is bright and airy, with sliding doors opening to the rear garden, creating a seamless connection between indoor and outdoor living. The modern kitchen diner is stylishly finished with wood block effect work surfaces, matching storage units, and integrated appliances, complemented by a striking cast iron fireplace and a feature stained glass window. A practical utility room with rear access provides extra appliance and storage space, and there is also a useful under-stairs cupboard for everyday convenience.

Upstairs, the landing leads to three well-proportioned bedrooms. The main bedroom overlooks the rear garden, the second is a bright front-facing room with built-in storage, and the third offers versatility as a child's room, guest bedroom, or home office. The family bathroom is finished to a high standard, with a three-piece suite, shower over bath, stylish tiling, heated towel radiator, and additional airing cupboard.

The property is set in a well-served village with a school, shop, pub, village hall, doctor's surgery, and easy access to the market towns of Uttoxeter and Ashbourne, as well as major transport links via the A50, M1, and M6. Outside, there is a front forecourt garden, an enclosed rear garden with gated access.

Viewing by appointment only.
