

56 Acorn Drive , Ashbourne, DE6 1TW

Located in a highly desirable position on the edge of the charming market town of Ashbourne, this modern three-bedroom semi-detached home offers stylish living space, an impressive dining kitchen, a private garden, generous off-road parking, and a substantial storage shed.

The accommodation briefly comprises an entrance hall with stairs rising to the first floor, a spacious living room with french doors leading to the garden, and a well-appointed open-plan dining kitchen fitted with integrated appliances. There is also a convenient ground floor cloakroom. Upstairs, the principal bedroom benefits from a contemporary en-suite shower room, complemented by two further bedrooms and a family bathroom.

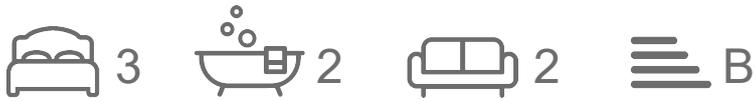

Externally, the property enjoys ample off-road parking. At the rear, there is a spacious garden with a large storage shed. The garden also includes two patio areas and a section of astroturf.

Ashbourne is a thriving and much-loved market town just north of Derby, offering a wide range of amenities including stylish bars and restaurants, excellent shopping, and varied recreational and sporting facilities. Often referred to as the gateway to the Peak District National Park, it provides easy access to beautiful countryside walks and outdoor pursuits.
