The Estate & Location

Coach House Mews is set within the impressive Blithfield Hall Estate and is approached via a long, scenic driveway through open countryside, with views overlooking Blithfield Reservoir. The estate is believed to date back beyond the 1400s, with Coach House Mews constructed in 1837 after being relocated from another part of the estate. Originally serving as stabling, accommodation and a clock tower, the mews estate was converted into private residences in 1983 and have since been enjoyed for their tranquil setting and historic grandeur.

The nearby village of Abbots Bromley lies just a few minutes' drive away and offers a range of shops, pubs and cafés. The village is also renowned for its annual Horn Dance Festival, considered one of the oldest medieval festivals in England. More extensive amenities can be found in Uttoxeter, the Cathedral City of Lichfield and Rugeley.

Outdoor leisure pursuits are readily available at Blithfield Reservoir, home to sailing and fishing clubs, while local golf courses include The Manor, Ingestre Park and Uttoxeter Golf Club. Cannock Chase is also within easy reach. The property is well positioned for access to the A50, M1, M6 and M42, and direct rail services from Lichfield provide links to Birmingham and London in approximately 80 minutes.
