

Abode are delighted to present this distinctive and individually designed detached freehold home, offering generous and versatile living accommodation across two floors. Set within a substantial plot, the property enjoys an open outlook to the front and picturesque views over the beautifully maintained rear garden.

Currently arranged as a three-bedroom home, the impressive principal bedroom provides excellent potential to be reconfigured into multiple well-proportioned bedrooms, subject to requirements. The surrounding gardens are a standout feature, wrapping around the property and best enjoyed from the raised decking area that extends across the rear elevation.

Externally, a spacious driveway provides ample off-road parking and access to the garage.

Ideally positioned within the highly sought-after village of Cotton, the property benefits from access to stunning countryside walks and scenery, as well as convenient proximity to the local primary school. The nearby market towns of Cheadle, Leek and Ashbourne are all a short drive away, and offer a wide range of shops, schools and everyday amenities.

In brief, the accommodation comprises: entrance hallway, kitchen diner, utility room, WC, living room, two bedrooms and a family bathroom to the ground floor. To the first floor there is a superb principal bedroom with dressing area and ensuite.

Beautifully presented throughout and offering exciting scope for further reconfiguration, this unique home must be viewed early to be fully appreciated.
